CYRE MEDIA CONSENT FORM: 2015-2016

From time to time we would like to post photographs or videos of the children and youth on the church bulletin boards, on our website or Facebook page, in the weekly electronic newsletter CYRENews, in the Quest (monthly newsletter), or in Enews (weekly congregational electronic newsletter).

Seeing themselves thus depicted affirms for the children and youth that they are a valued part of the church community. We also wish to highlight their activities for the information of newcomers, visitors to our program, the congregation and community at large.

In order to comply with Alberta's Personal Information Protection Act and Copyright legislation, the Unitarian Church of Calgary requires consent from parents or independent youth (18 years or over) to post or publish photos or videos.

Please note the following:

- Children and youth in the pictures will not be identified in any way (no names, ages, locations).
- Once the pictures are posted or published, the Unitarian Church of Calgary cannot control or prevent the further distribution or use of the material by others.
- At any time, you may instruct us to remove pictures from the church website, from a bulletin board or newsletter (prior to publication), or withdraw your consent, by notifying the Director of Religious Education in writing.
- There is no obligation to consent.

I, being either: a) the parent/guardian of (name of child or youth) _____ or b) the independent youth (name of youth 18 years or over) _____ have read and understood the above information.

- I give the Unitarian Church of Calgary permission to use my child's/my photograph for internal use only- bulletin boards/ photos used in worship
- I give the Unitarian Church of Calgary permission to use my child's/my photograph for internal and external use including electronic newsletters that get posted to Face Book and/or Face Book posts about CYRE events
- I do not give the Unitarian Church of Calgary permission to use my child's/my photograph under any circumstances
